The People of Chisago County (Book 6, S, T)

This is the next to last book of biographical sketches involving 19th Century people in Chisago County. The 7th book will include names beginning with U and ending with Z.

Remember that biographical sketches in bold face indicate military service. There may be a few listings at the end of the book that are out of alphabetical order because the information was not received in time to print in the regular order.

Because of a computer crash I could not retrieve Pages 1-67 of the 'S' listings to make a bunch of corrections—mostly typos. I hope that will not cause serious problems.

This series is obviously not all-inclusive, but it is a good sampling of people from all of the ethnic groups which settled in the county, mainly before about 1885. The two largest groups were the English-Scottish-Irish lumbermen and railroaders, and the Swedish farmers. There were smaller pockets of French, German, Canadian, Danish and Norwegian settlers, the largest being the Germans.

The largest sources of information used were census records, cemetery stones and newspaper items, followed by military records, family histories and Swedish birth and emigration records. All of these records are subject to errors in recording, transcribing, interpreting or copying. But they are clues which can be a starting point in the hunt for ancestors.

Domestics, Hired Men, Boarders, Etc. (S)

This listing includes mostly people who are found in census records in households other than those of their own families. Mostly, they are not related. In most cases they are harder to find in a search because it is difficult to trace them to their families. The listing which follows at least gives their location at a specific time which is usually a census year. Their approximate birth years can be determined by subtracting the age from the census year in which they were found.
